*May the wonder and delight we observe in children at Christmas
enkindle in us awe and thanksgiving
for the great mystery of the Incarnation.*

Merry Christmas

Congratulations to Newly Certified Catechetical Leaders...

The annual Appreciation Luncheon for certified catechetical leaders was held on Friday, November 20 at Cyprian Keyes Golf Club. Bishop McManus, who had just returned from the U.S. Bishops' meeting, spoke on the five priorities of the USCCB. During the luncheon, seven parish catechetical leaders were recognized for completing the requirements leading to certification as Administrators and Coordinators of Religious Education. All are a testimony to the value of lifelong learning.

Deacon Ron Buron, Administrator of Religious Education

Deacon Ron serves at St. Brigid Parish in Millbury. In addition to his role as deacon, he is the catechetical leader for the religious education program for grades 7-11.

Karen Etre, Administrator of Religious Education

Karen is in her second year as catechetical leader at St. Anne Parish, Shrewsbury. She has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from Northeastern University, and in May 2008, earned her Master's Degree in Pastoral Ministry from Anna Maria College.

Carole LeBlanc, Administrator of Religious Education

Carole is a parishioner and volunteer catechist at St. James Parish in South Grafton, and is employed part-time at St. Philip Parish in Grafton. She completed her certification courses through the University of Dayton online program.

Chet Stokloza, Administrator of Religious Education

Chet serves as catechetical leader at St. Theresa Parish in Blackstone, where he has volunteered for over 35 years. He is the co-author of several manuals on evangelization, and has conducted institutes on evangelization at colleges and seminaries in the United States and Jamaica.

Carol Zabinski, Administrator of Religious Education

Carol is the catechetical leader at Good Shepherd Parish, Linwood, and a part-time music teacher. She has a Bachelor's Degree in Music from Boston University, and a Master's Degree in Early Childhood Education from Rhode Island College.

Karen Barrows, Coordinator of Religious Education

Karen is the catechetical leader at Our Lady of the Angels Parish in Worcester. For the past several years, she has been working towards a Bachelor's Degree in Catholic Studies from Anna Maria College. She graduated in May 2009, and is working towards a Master's Degree, also from Anna Maria.

Patricia Secino, Coordinator of Religious Education

Pat is the catechetical leader at St. Cecilia Parish in Leominster. She has been working for the past several years to earn her Bachelor's Degree in Catholic Studies from Anna Maria College. She graduated in May 2009.
